Your Personal Duty Free Allowances

Please be advised that the duty free allowance information given below is a guide. While we have made every effort to ensure accuracy, it is the responsibility of every member of the public to be aware of the relevant laws and customs duties that are applicable to whichever jurisdiction or country they are travelling to. We advise that you check with the local customs authorities for the most up to date information.

When you are bringing in goods you must: transport them yourself, use them yourself or give them away as a gift. If you go over your allowances you must declare all your goods and pay tax and duty on all the goods on the same type in that category. You cannot combine allowances with other people to bring in more than your individual allowance.
